Re: United States v. Eric Adams, 24 Cr. 556 (DEH)

Dear Judge Ho:

The Court's Order dated April 25, 2025 (Dkt. 185) granted a motion by the New York Times Company and NYP Holdings, Inc. seeking the public filing of the following materials from this Office's investigation and discovery process in this matter: (i) search warrants and accompanying affidavits; (ii) indexes that accompanied discovery productions to defense counsel; (iii) a December 2021 application for a 2703(d) Order; and (iv) an August 2024 application for a warrant for location data (collectively, the "Materials").

In accordance with the deadline set in the Court's Order dated May 5, 2025 (Dkt. 190), the Materials are attached here and listed in the index below. Consistent with the Court's April 25 Order, the Materials are redacted to protect the "names of law enforcement personnel and any unindicted subjects of investigation." (Dkt. 185, at 5). To protect third-party privacy interests and to comply with Rule 49.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Materials are further redacted to protect email addresses (but not domains unless the domains were uniquely identifying), telephone numbers (except for the last four digits), street addresses (except for the city, state, and zip code), photographs of personal residences, and any identifying information of minors. See United States v. Amodio, 71 F.3d 1044, 1051 (2d Cir. 1995); In re New York Times Co., 828 F.2d 110, 116 (2d Cir. 1987).

To facilitate electronic filing of these voluminous materials, where an attachment to a document is separately filed, we have noted in brackets a reference to the separately filed document and have not reattached it to this filing.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Jay Clayton
